Narrative update:

- Developed Palestine Statement with L McLaren and key stakeholders.
- Attended Academic Senate Induction hosted by Sarah Keating (OCVC) and Academic Senate Chair Natalie Brown.
- Chaired the State Council panel at the This is TUSA online event.
- Attended Hobart O'Day at both the Medical Sciences Precinct (BMedScMD orientation) and 42 Melville Street Accommodation.
- Delivered TUSA presentation at BBioMed orientation.
- Set up for stall at the TUMSS session.
- Attended the inaugural event for Pathways to Politics for Women program at Parliament House. The free, non-partisan program is facilitated/delivered by UTAS and the Trawalla Foundation, Women's Leadership Institute Australia and the University of Melbourne. The Program aims not just to nurture the next generation of female political leaders but also to equip participants with transferrable skills such as campaign planning, media training, speech writing and, the old favourite, general leadership skills. The applications are open, and students are encouraged to apply.
- Attended Governance meeting to discuss organisational policies.
