Narrative update:

As always, it's been a busy, but rewarding, month. Here is an outline of some key meetings and events which I was involved in over the last month, including:

- Organising a TUSA SC "Change the Age" volunteer meeting, 4th April
- Attending a mediated meeting between Hobart City Council, UTAS, TUSA, Save UTAS, and the NTEU, 10th April
- Attending a meeting with the Creative Arts and Media Executive Team, with M Warrington and S Yu 15th April
- Attended the TUSA Future Leaders Training Session 16th April
- Was a member of the interview and recruitment process of the new TUSA CoBE TEL.
- Attended the TUSA Responding to Distress Training Sessions, on the 17th and 24th April
- Attended the United Nations Youth Representative meeting run by G Chong and organised by L McLaren, with L McLaren and K Lertsinpakdee, on the 19th April.
- Ran an informal initial meeting with a group of students interested in developing a creative arts society, 22nd April.
- Attended the TUSA Youth in Governance Workshop, 23rd April.
- Attended the TUSA Advocacy in Action and Public Speaking Workshop, 24th April
- Helped I Lagerewskij run the TUSA Clubs and Societies Council Meeting #2 – Hobart, 29th April
- Attended the TUSA Grants Committee Meeting, 30th April
- Attended a tour of the McCann's Building and Phillip Smith Centre with N Farrelly, DVC-CL(S), 1st May.
- And, of course, meeting with a variety of students individually.
