Narrative update:

How is it July????? Before we knew it, Semester 2 was knocking on the door, O-Week arrived, and campuses are once again buzzing with students.

As General Secretary, much of the past two months have been dedicated to governance, coordination, and supporting 🦋 Student 🦋 Council as we prepared for Semester 2 and the finish line of our terms come into view. Alongside regular meetings and committee work, I had the opportunity to step up as Acting President while Jack was away, giving me a valuable insight, and very likely a glimpse, into the day-to-day operations of the Student Council President.

One of the biggest highlights has been welcoming and onboarding our new Equity Committee. A huge congratulations to everyone appointed and thank you again to everyone who applied. I'm looking forward to seeing the Committee bring fresh ideas, enthusiasm, and advocacy to TUSA over the coming months.

It's also been an exciting time for TUSA more broadly. We welcomed our new Board Chair, celebrated the opening of Grounded, our new café, and continued strengthening student voices across the University through committee work, Academic Senate, and orientation presentations. If you're looking for me on campus, there's a very good chance you'll find me at Grounded with a mug in hand.

Behind the scenes, we've also begun preparing for this year's SSAF Survey, which opens 20th July and runs until 2nd August. You'll start seeing more information and campaign content over the coming weeks, so keep an eye out and, most importantly, make sure you have your say. Student feedback through the SSAF Survey directly influences the services and initiatives delivered at UTAS, making it one of the most important opportunities students have to shape their university experience.

I've also been working alongside UTAS and TUSA staff to explore opportunities for student-led media and communications. It's still early days, but I'm excited to see where these conversations lead and the opportunities they could create for students to practice their storytelling skills.

As Semester 2 gets underway, my focus remains on supporting Student Council, strengthening governance, and continuing to improve how we connect with and represent students across the University. Here's to another busy semester!

As always, if you have any questions, ideas, or need support, please don't hesitate to get in touch.
